

Eastmorland Madison, WI

The homes in Eastmorland, Madison, WI are an extremely popular option on the near east side of the city. This neighborhood offers a prime location with a large selection of three bedroom homes near Olbrich Park, Olbrich Gardens, and Atwood Avenue. Here you'll find a quality selection of bungalow, ranch, and Cape Cod style homes built in the mid-1900s. Most of the houses in the neighborhood have less than 1,500 finished square feet. Affordability is one strong selling point of this near east side community. Another is the long list of neighborhood amenities that make life in Eastmorland unique.

6+ Parks

2 Schools

10+ Restaurants
Nearby

Parks, Beaches & Recreation

Eastmorland properties offer a prime near east side location with excellent access to the many locally-operated shops, restaurants, and entertainment options on Atwood Avenue. The Atwood Avenue corridor also features Olbrich Park and the Olbrich Botanical Gardens, two of Madison's most popular outdoor destinations. (Eastmorland Park, Ontario Park, and O.B. Sherry Park are also located within the boundaries of the neighborhood.) The Capital City State Trail bicycle route runs through the neighborhood, connecting Eastmorland to many miles of trail throughout the city. This community's proximity to Stoughton Road, Highway 30, and Cottage Grove Road allows for a quick commute to the interstate and many other parts of Madison.

Eastmorland Community Association

The Eastmorland Community Association (ECA) is one of many strong neighborhood groups on the near east side of Madison. This very active organization sponsors many community-oriented events throughout the year, including an Earth Day park clean-up and plant and seed swap in the spring; neighborhood "meet and greets" and a garage sale in the summer; and a volunteer leaf-raking event in the fall.

Schools

Schenk Elementary
230 Schenk St

Whitehorse Middle School
218 Schenk St

LaFollette High School
702 Pflaum Rd

Mad City Dream Homes, RE/MAX Preferred
1619 Monroe St, Suite 1
Madison, WI 53711