

Carriage Hill Estates

Sun Prairie, WI

Carriage Hill Estates is located on the east side of Sun Prairie near one of the city's largest public parks. Built during the 1970s, 1980s, and 1990s, the houses in this east side neighborhood tend to offer a generous amount of space both inside and out, and a wide range of styles and interior options. Most of the houses in the area offer 3 to 4 bedrooms and between 2,000 and 3,000 finished square feet. Many of the homes reside on generously-sized parcels which offer up to a third of an acre in space or more.

Local Parks and Amenities

Many of the houses in Carriage Hill Estates back up to Carriage Hills Estates Park. This park is one of Sun Prairie's largest and offers over 20 acres of ponds, picnic space, playgrounds, and athletic facilities. Residents enjoy the extensive network of walking paths during the warmer months and sledding and ice skating during the winter. The much smaller Carriage Hills Park offers another quiet spot for kids in the neighborhood to play in the Spring, Summer and Fall months.

Schools

The Sun Prairie school district includes 16 schools - nine elementary schools, two middle schools, one upper middle school, one high school and an alternative learning school. Students in the Carriage Hill neighborhood attend Eastside Elementary School, Patrick Marsh Middle School, and Sun Prairie High School.
