

Blackhawk Madison, WI

The luxury properties in Blackhawk on the far west side of Madison are some of the finest in the entire city. Among other respected home builders, Hart DeNoble, Keuler, and Temple Construction have constructed an exceptional assortment of high-end homes. This Parade of Homes neighborhood offers convenient access to recreational, shopping, and dining opportunities. If you're seeking an upscale property with exquisite finishes, you'll find this neighborhood offers every imaginable amenity. Many of the properties here feature ranch and contemporary-styled designs with modern, open floor plans, and large living spaces with vaulted or cathedral ceilings. Blackhawk is also known for its immense variety of custom-built dream homes with unique architectural features. Most properties range in size from 4,000 to 8,000 finished square feet. Three car garages are common throughout the neighborhood.

Recreation & Parks

The Blackhawk subdivision offers a great variety of recreational opportunities, beginning with the Pleasant View Golf Course which adjoins the neighborhood along Blackhawk Road. The golf courses at Tumbledown Trails, Hawks Landing, and University Ridge are only a short drive from home. Both Blackhawk and Swallowtail Parks are located within the neighborhood, while the unique Pope Farm Conservancy adjoins the subdivision along its western edge.

Schools

Although the Blackhawk subdivision is located within the city of Madison, residents participate in the Middleton-Cross Plains School District. The children here attend Sauk Trail or Sunset Ridge Elementary, and Kromrey or Glacier Creek Middle School, depending on location. All homes in the neighborhood are zoned to Middleton High School.
