

Oregon, WI

The Village of Oregon is located near rolling hills and family farms, 7 miles south of Madison. Established in the mid-1800s, Oregon has grown to nearly 10,000 people and was recently named to CNN/Money magazine's list of "100 top places to live" in small town America. Homes in Oregon are as varied as the town's past; with historic downtown homes, mature neighborhoods, and modern homes and condos located along golf course greens. The real estate in Oregon offers a view of this Wisconsin village's history. Main, Lincoln, Janesville, and Jefferson streets are home to a number of historic buildings and houses, several of which are on the National Register of Historic Places. Oregon also features affordable real estate in a number of different neighborhoods.

Recreation, Events, and Attractions

An undeniable, small town vibe permeates the village of Oregon. The residents celebrate their small town roots each year at the Kiser Park and carnival grounds, home to the village Summer Fest. The annual fair features a midway carnival, a softball tournament, dunk tank, tug of war, brat stand, a parade - as well as a classic, car, truck, and bike show. Oregon parks and green spaces are plentiful; local facilities include Lerner Conservation, Jaycee, Kiser, Bethel Greenacre, Scott Street, Thomson, and Town parks.

Schools

Oregon has its own school district which serves families in Fitchburg in addition to the residents of Oregon. Public schools include Brooklyn, Netherwood Knoll, and Prairie View Elementary – serving grades K through 4. Rome Corners Intermediate School serves the 5th and 6th grades, while Oregon Middle School serves grades 7 and 8. The high school, located on Perry Parkway, serves grades 9 through 12.
