

Westport, WI

Westport real estate belongs to one of the most picturesque settings in all of Dane County. Surrounded by acres of restored prairie, the Yahara River, and the northeast shoreline of Lake Mendota, the town of Westport offers a large selection of luxury and waterfront properties. The town of Westport also offers a good selection of affordably priced homes, all within a few minutes of Madison's west and east sides. Westport also offers many different condo options – many of them at affordable price points. These include the Yahara View, Steeplechase, Lighthouse Bay, and Mariners Cove condos. Westshire Village at the Lake is a 55-plus condo community, also with affordable prices. If you're seeking luxury and waterfront real estate, the town of Westport will be high on your list of areas to visit. The Blue Bill Park and Borcher's Beach neighborhoods both feature high end and waterfront homes.

Recreation & Parks

This town of 3,800 offers the ideal setting for the home buyer seeking a location close to a variety of natural areas. Governor Nelson State Park, with its inspiring Lake Mendota views and acres of restored prairie, is located just down the road. Also down the road are the Yahara Heights and Mendota parks – both under the Dane County park system. In addition to these resources, Westport offers its own system of parks and protected natural areas. Six Mile Creek flows through a few subdivisions. Many neighborhoods are thoughtfully designed to maintain beautiful countryside, and allow for hiking and even horseback riding throughout the area.

Schools

Residents in the town of Westport have access to two different school districts. Households are assigned to either the Waunakee or Middleton-Cross Plains school districts, depending on location.
