

Wexford Village

Madison, WI

The Wexford Village neighborhood is located north of Old Sauk Road between Gammon Road and the Beltline on the west side of Madison, WI. This neighborhood first began to emerge in the 1970s. Real estate values have grown steadily since that time. The local neighborhood association is very active and plans a number of community events throughout the year, including a 4th of July parade and party, a neighborhood-wide garage sale, an Easter egg hunt for the kids, and a park clean up day at Wexford Park.

Neighborhood Amenities

Wexford Village offers excellent access to the many parks on this side of town. Residents here enjoy short walks to Wexford Park, Stricker Park and Pond, Woodside Heights Park, Tiedeman Pond, and located on the western edge of the neighborhood is High Point Pool. Another attractive selling point is the network of walking paths that wind throughout the subdivision. Many shopping and dining options are also conveniently located within a short distance of the neighborhood. Sauk Point Square is located at the intersection of Old Sauk Road and High Point Road and the Alicia Ashman Library is a popular community gathering place. West Towne Mall is just minutes away at the intersection of Mineral Point Road and Gammon Road.
